COFFINS WANTED FOR THE BROOK
GANG IN COLORADO.

Desperado Bunch Said to Have Been Killed by Hopgood—Indications of Race Conflict in Florida—The ANNISTON, Ala., Aug. 25.—A posse of about 200 citizens of Calera are scouring the country for several miles around that place for a negro, named Evans, whose deeds of lawlessness have aroused the whole community. If caught he will likely go the route of all similar criminals. Tuesday night Evans entered a store and asked for a cigar. The clerk was about to hand him one out of the show-case when he refused to take it saying that he wanted one from the box on the shelf. As Stein turned his back to get it, the negro knocked him down and seizing

Some goods fled.

As Steln ran out after him the negro fired at him. He also fired at Wright, a druggist, who was looking out of a window in the second story in the building at the time. The bullet buried itself in the window facing, missing Wright's head only a few inches.

Yesterday morning before daylight he entered the residence of Mrs. McKibben by mounting a scaffold and climbing in through a window.

Their brother heard their screams and ran into the room. The negro sprang out of the window and escaped. A large posse was formed, and a vigorous search is going on for the negro. Dogs were put on the trail, and he will probably be caught.

THE NEGRO WHO ASSAULTED MRS. TAYLOR IS SEDALIA.
SEDALIA, Mo., Aug. 25.—Sheriff Smith received a telegram yesterday from the Sheriff at Madisonville, Ky., stating that Jim Davis, the negro who assaulted Mrs. Charles L. Taylor in this city last February, was under ar-

The search for the negro Davis has now been ceased since the morning after the assassination. The police are still looking for him, but so far without avail.

GUARDING AGAIN A NEGRO PRISONER

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 26.—An unrepentant prisoner who was captured in New Smyrna beach on the East coast railway lines, news of which had reached here. Last Saturday Chas. Thompson, who was arrested there on a Wednesday afternoon, was taken to the Jacksonville prison.

to be assaulted with intent to kill. Thomas backed away from the Negro, who was armed with a double-barreled shotgun. Thomas was shot in the back of the head and fell to the ground. The Negro then fired a second shot, which hit Thomas in the chest. Thomas died of his wounds. The Negro was arrested and charged with murder. He was found guilty and sentenced to death. The case was a landmark in the history of the civil rights movement, as it was the first time a white man was convicted of murdering a black man in the South since Reconstruction.

from the camp about 10 p. m. and could be seen in small groups about town, but they found out that the jail was strongly guarded and decided to leave before 12 o'clock. Since then the whole town has been in constant terror of the men's return and armed men have patrolled the streets at night and day. Excitement is subsiding, but there are rumors of another attack.

COFFINS FOR THE BROCK GANG.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Aug. 25.—H. C.

brockline, an undertaker of this city, reportedly following the telephone call from West Water, Utah, north of the Colorado line:

"Send three coffins. We have run across the Brock gang."

Three cheap coffins were sent as requested. Brock's gang is a dangerous lot of cattle rustlers and horse thieves. Western breakmen who was at West Water yesterday stated that the shooting took place on the Utah side about 10 o'clock. The shooting was over by morning. He was alone, but shot with such good effect that three of the gang were killed and the fourth shot through the head, though still alive when the train left.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

LIMA, O., Aug. 25.—Five prisoners escaped from the county jail last night at 9 o'clock. Sheriff O'Neill is absent. He left Friday last.

turnkey. When Fink went to lock the prisoners up they rushed at him and knocked him down and hit Mrs. O'Neill, who was at the door. The prisoners then escaped through the front door. Frank Turner, a prisoner, jumped over the wall and ran to the "Catholic" church. He was captured by the police and was easily captured. The other prisoners escaped by scattering in every direction.

HOW BUNCH MET DEATH.

New Orleans, Aug. 23.—A story has been published here to the effect that the notorious Capt. Eugene Bunch met death at the hands of one of his own band of outlaws, Hobgood, being charged with having fired the fatal shot. It is said that Bunch had suspicions that Hobgood was "giving away" his (Bunch's) plans to the officers and was about to turn him in. Bunch, however, promised immunity from prosecution if he killed Bunch, which he did. The result was that Bunch was killed and Hobgood is considered a suspicious circumstance.
